Primary Responsibilities:

- Contribute to the execution of the internal audit plan, leading on Finance, Regulatory and Risk audits as required and participating on underwriting, claims and other areas of the audit plan.
- Contribute to the risk assessment and internal audit planning process.
- Establish objectives and scopes for audits, execute the procedures, discuss observations with senior management, and prepare reports.
- Provide executable recommendations that improve operations, controls, and how the business is managed.
- Effectively communicate audit observations, internal control deficiencies, and recommendations, including discussions with senior management. Prepare clear and concise written audit reports.
- Contribute to financial controls testing as required.
- Work with internal audit team members in other office locations on group-wide audits as required.
- Work collaboratively and develop strong relationships with business units and operational areas and continue to develop the organization's appreciation for a strong internal control environment.

- Monitor and follow up on the status of internal audit observations through regular interaction with the business.
- Participate in data analytics initiatives within the department working with the business leaders to allow continuous monitoring.

Desired Skills and Experience

- Combined internal audit experience with an insurance, reinsurance, or public accounting organization. Finance / Regulatory / Risk knowledge and experience desirable.
- Highly effective interpersonal & communication skills; ability to write clear and concise reports
- Ability to maintain strong relationships with management
- Well-developed ability to explain decisions to others and negotiate appropriate solutions
- Ability to be a critical thinker in order to identify and analyze exposures, recognize areas of concern, and develop appropriate solutions
- Effective organization and workload management skills
- Strong attention to detail
- Strong analytical skills required
- Industry relevant qualifications
- A strong work ethic and ability to work independently or as part of a team
- Additional Language German / French desirable.
