

The Current Landscape:

1

More PL Fac is being purchased due to heightened exposures, such as IPOs & SPACS, and capital constraints with a turbulent economy

2

Desire to add extra layer of protection in a more seamless and efficient manner has resulted in an increase in the use of Auto Facilities

3

Increase need to stabilize cedent portfolios through the use of PL Fac

Advantages of Professional Liability Facultative Reinsurance:

Facultative Reinsurance offers support to insurers who seek backing on an individual risk, or a defined package of risks.

Support a ceding company without any other reinsurance protection

The necessity for capacity beyond the insurer's treaty limits

To reinsure risks that may fall outside the insurer's treaty

To reinsure complicated risks

To help lessen the volatility of risks or package of risks within a given industry
