

Delivering innovative insurance and reinsurance products to agriculture partners worldwide

INNOVATIVE AND EMPOWERED

AgriSompo is an integrated underwriting, technology and distribution platform delivering innovative insurance and reinsurance solutions to agriculture partners worldwide. Through empowered local teams with a deep understanding of the markets in which they operate, we offer a full suite of risk transfer products to address the (re)insurance needs of agri-related businesses.

INTEGRATED CUSTOMIZED PRODUCT

With a collaborative and flexible approach, AgriSompo delivers customized traditional and parametric crop insurance products quickly and efficiently to all participants of the agriculture value chain, from farmers, cooperatives and input providers, to agents, brokers and insurance companies.

GLOBAL LEADER

Launched in 2017 by Global P&C insurance and reinsurance provider Sompso International, AgriSompo has grown to become a worldwide leader in crop (re)insurance. With a strong and growing presence in North and South America, Asia and Europe, AgriSompo combines global reach, financial strength, excellent ratings, knowledgeable underwriting and specialized product expertise, with cutting-edge technology and analytics to best meet our clients risk management needs.

EXCEPTIONAL REPUTATION

Blending best-in-class underwriting, risk modeling and product development, AgriSompo leverages Sompso's global reach and financial strength to service the needs of our agriculture clients tailored to local markets.
