

Our Aerospace team offers a range of aviation hull and/or liability products targeted at a worldwide client base of airlines, product manufacturers and airport operators plus their ancillary services, as well as coverage for non-U.S. general aviation clients.

With decades of experience between us, our dedicated team is an approachable and trusted partner, working with our intermediaries and clients to develop programs that match their individual needs.

By carefully monitoring changes in the market and truly understanding our clients risks and exposures, we are able to offer tailored solutions and a responsive service.

At Sompo International Insurance, our approach is to build long-term relationships with our clients, offering support throughout the market cycle, backed by the exceptional financial strength of Sompo's balance sheet. We pride ourselves on offering a superior service, both in responding quickly to client and broker requests and in paying valid claims promptly.
