Self Service Risk Management Portal

As part of Sompo's commitment to delivering industry-leading service for our policyholders, there is an exclusive opportunity to access a robust suite of tools and resources related to risk management, compliance, HR, and employment law at real time. Below is just a sampling of what's available 24/7 within the Sompo EPL Risk Management Center.

Tools & Applications

HR Hotline

Access to certified HR professionals, available by phone or email, for assistance with navigating a wide range of issues pertaining to federal & state employment laws, wage & hour considerations, discipline and termination guidelines, and more.

Employee Handbook Builder

Easy to use tool that pulls in all Federal and State required policies and gives users the flexibility to upload custom content to create a fully branded, compliant and customized Employee Handbook.

Multi-State Law Comparison Tool

A quick and convenient way for companies who have locations/employees in multiple states to generate a side-by-side comparison of applicable state labor laws and regulations.

Automated Notifications

Curated news alerts that automatically keep you informed on trending topics, state & federal employment law updates, and other regulatory issues that pertain to your business and/or industry.

HR Self-Assessment Tools

Analyze your human resource competencies to ensure you are creating an environment for employees to thrive in. With this tool, you can assess your HR management practices, employee relations, recruiting process, training and development efforts, and more.

Compliance Poster Builder

An easy way to identify and generate required workplace posters to help you comply with U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) regulations.

Online Training

Tap into a library of over 200 professionally produced courses to facilitate ongoing employee and manager training.

- Topics include: workplace harassment prevention, diversity & inclusion, labor and privacy law, general workplace safety, hiring & termination, manager success, and more.
- Administrators can easily assign courses, set due dates, track progress, and generate certificates of completion to ensure compliance with state & local training requirements.

Content

- Searchable library containing thousands of industry leading resources, HR newsletters, toolkits, guides, employment law summaries, compliance bulletins, and much more.
